

Great South Bay Audubon Society, Inc.

A Chapter of National Audubon

ANNUAL DINNER FUNDRAISER

Date: Monday, May 6, 2019

Time: 6pm Cocktail Hour/ 7pm Dinner

Place: Captain Bill's Bayview House, 122 Ocean Ave., Bay Shore, NY

Guest Speaker: Jim Colligan

Speaker Biography: Jim Colligan is an accomplished nature photographer whose love of photography began in college and has followed him through his years of service in the US Army (including Vietnam) to retirement. Retired from Carle Place School District, Jim now resides on Shelter Island. He also was a trustee at Mashomack Preserve. Although he has traveled to several exotic places, most of his nature photography experiences have been on Eastern Long Island.

An original painting! – Artist in residence, Steven D'Amato has created a lifelike original painting of a pair of Barn Owls roosting. Only $10.00 per raffle ticket allows you the opportunity to own an original, framed painting of barn owls. The painting will be available for viewing on our website as soon as it is completed. Additional raffles will be available for purchase at our general meeting and at the dinner. You need not be present to win.

Dinner tickets are $50 per person ($55 after April 26) and include hot and cold hors d'oeuvres, appetizer, salad, choice of three entrées, dessert, soda, coffee and tea. A vegetarian entrée is also available. There will be a cash bar.

Please complete and mail your dinner reservation form at the bottom of this letter by April 26, together with both your raffle tickets and check payable to GSBAS, in the enclosed self-addressed envelope.

Please include your seating preference naming all the individuals (tables of 10).

You may secure your table assignment and door prize raffle ticket at the door.

Please come and enjoy the great food, delightful company and terrific speaker. There will be wonderful and varied Chinese Auction, raffle prizes and door prizes.
